

NIRMAL KOTECHA BA (Hons) MBA; FCIPS; MILT

Nirmal is a supply chain transformation specialist with over 24 years experience of working in a variety of sectors of which the majority have been working for large infrastructure clients ranging from gas, water, construction and highways.

He joined the Highways Agency in April 2008 as the Main Board Director responsible for delivering the Agency's Road Programme. Prior to that Nirmal spent over 8 years with Anglian Water and is accredited with developing and delivering Anglian Water's collaborative alliance model for delivering its 2005-2010 Capital Programme.

Following Anglian Water Group's acquisition of Morrison Construction plc in 2001/2, Nirmal was involved in the integration of the business within the Group and subsequently also led the development of Morrison's supply chain management strategy.

Nirmal is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply and has recently been invited to advise the Institute of Civil Engineering in a study focussing on developing a Client Best Practice Guide for Procuring and Delivering Infrastructure Projects.
